Taking Pride In What We Do

As we open the door to this book full of memories, we realize that all the moments passed are forever gone. They only come once. With this in mind, we must always strive to achieve the very best and the very highest that we can . . . NOW. We began the 1983-84 school year with this goal and we have carried it through to the end. As the pages unfold you will see that we are proud to be East High students and we show it! We have made the most of the time we've spent here and we will carry this goal throughout life. After all, we're Eagles and we're proud!

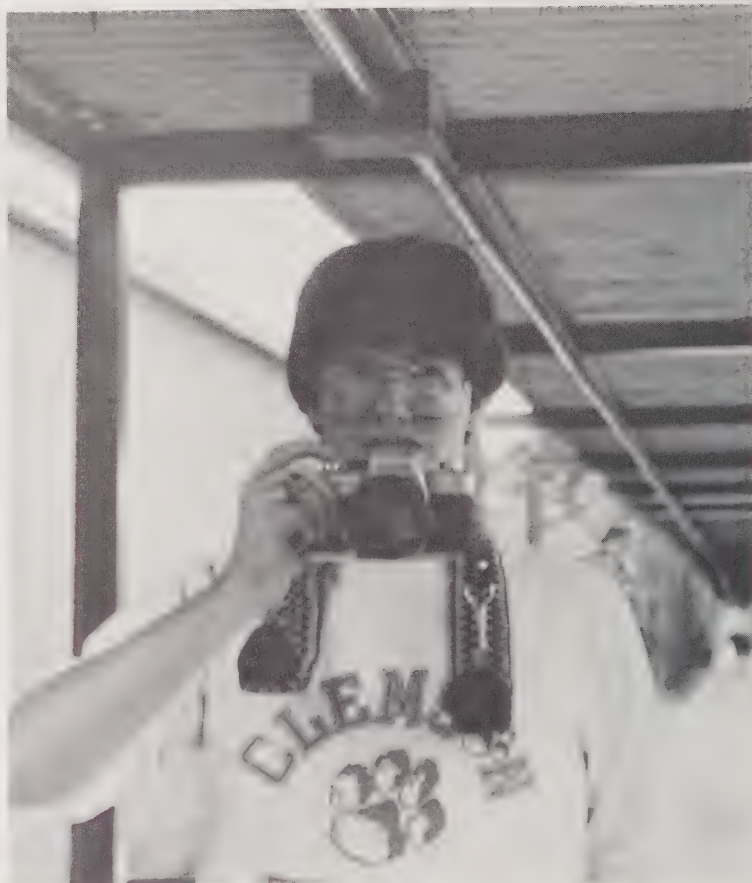

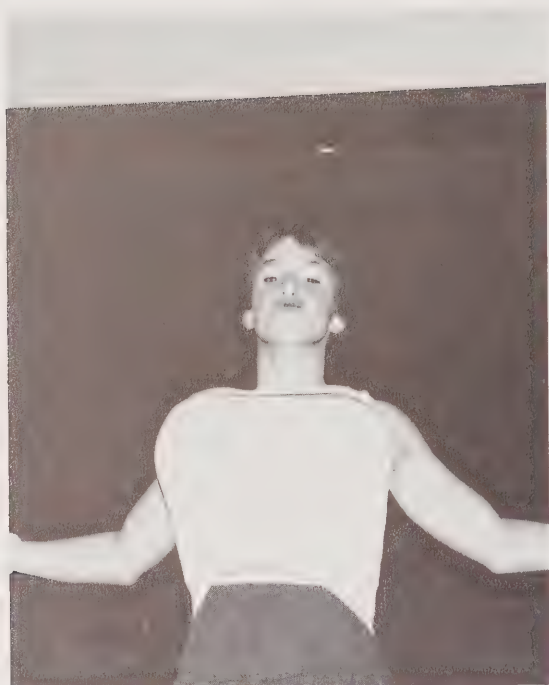

People Make The Difference

Imagine yourself attending a football game and no one was cheering from the sidelines, the field was empty, the loud speaker was silenced, and the bleachers found vacant. Obviously nothing would be worthwhile or even accomplished without people. But looking deeper, we see that East High, with all of its activities and programs, could not be of its quality or caliber without the unique and individual students which make up our enrollment of over 800. We carry our Eagle pride . . . and that is why we stand out from the rest!

Attaining Goals

The 83-84 school year proved to be a grueling one for some but with strong determination others found they could breeze through without difficulty.

Students realized that the higher they progressed the more openings there were to take classes that would benefit their career goals.

Athletes strived to bring pride back into the school by setting their goals high and trying their best to achieve the goals which they had set.

In the long run though we all learn that is important not only to set goals but to attain them.

Finding Something

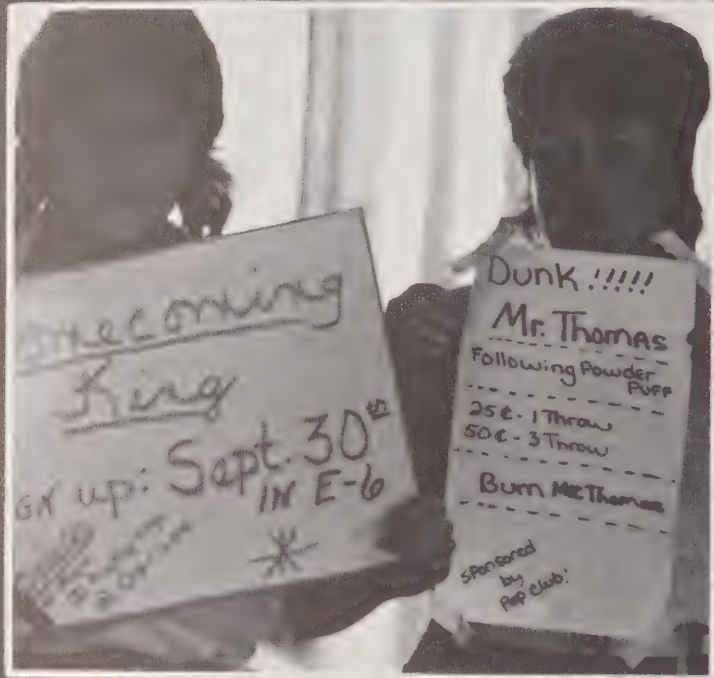

To Smile About

When final exams are drawing near, the books pile up higher than usual, and there doesn't seem to be any time for relaxing enjoyment, students at East always manage to keep their spirits up by finding something to smile about. One rarely sees a classroom full of East students who aren't filling their spare moments with an amusing joke, remembrances of an embarrassing experience, or the entertaining antics of a natural class clown. Humor is a necessary part of everyone's life . . . and East High is no exception.

Happenings!

This year many interesting happenings boosted and exemplified East High's school spirit. Whether it was helping others, such as Anthony Robinson week, or showing our golden spirit that won the Cheerwine Cheeroff, our school always came through. The more enjoyable events such as our Homecoming and Junior-Senior will always be part of the memories of the Happenings In 84.

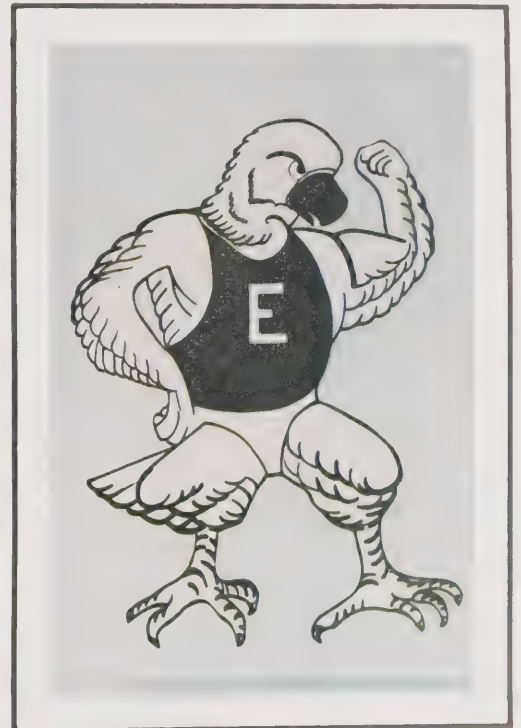

Spirit . . .

The Spirit of East High
Is the spirit
Of its people:
Of giving and sharing,
Of laughter and tears,
Of studies and games.
The Spirit of East High
OF ITS PEOPLE

The King And I

For three thrilling evenings during the Spring of 1983, the Senior Class presented to the student body "The King and I". For weeks prior to the performance many students and faculty members, as well as helping hands from other sources contributed their time and talents towards making this musical complete with choreography, exquisite costumes, props, music, and acting ability. Under the direction of Mrs. Nickell, the cast did a phenomenal job at capturing the realistic and intellectual aspects of Siam. The two leading roles, the king and Anna, were played by Tim Griffin and English exchange student Elaine Duigenan.

SPRINGNASTICS

The theme for the 1983 springnastic show was "The Gameroom." All through the year the gymnasts of East High worked very hard in preparation for the show. Mrs. Whitmore and Coach Moran put in valuable time and hard work in helping the show to turn out as a big success. Special thanks to Miss Jones for her time spent on the fantastic art work.

YESTERDAY IS GONE . . .

To put aside all the problems of setting a certain date for graduation, the seniors of '83 finally graduated on June 2, 1983. The class was full of fine athletes and scholars and many went on to college to further their education.

Even though it was a tearful experience to pass through the doors of East and leave many friends and good times, graduating from high school was just one of the many stepping stones into the future. With a world full of opportunities, jobs, and education, the class of '83 moved on to make a life of their own and find success. With the character and morale of this fine class, the future holds many bright tomorrows for them.

SENIORS

At last! Seniors entered their final lap with excited determination. Their reign at the top gave them superiority over the parking lot, in assemblies, and at lunch. It also brought them closer to the big future after graduation. Many seniors took advantage of the fewer number of credits needed in their last year and left campus early for jobs, assisted teachers, or took courses for pure enjoyment. Some still struggled to get as many academic classes as possible behind them before entering the serious world of college. Being a senior not only meant being at the top but also facing many challenges and decisions of adulthood. The class of '84 roamed the halls with questions of college, marriage, and career looming unanswered and just around the corner. But as their time comes and they step out on their own, their Eagle pride will stay with them and keep them striving for success in whatever they do.

PORTRAIT OF OURSELVES

Being stuck in the middle was by no means a boring position for juniors. With usually the hardest, most varied schedules, and more opportunities for class activities, this group stayed active and spirited. Juniors showed their vigor during Homecoming week by winning the hall decorating contest and, with the aid of the sophomores, defeated the seniors in the competitive powderpuff football game. A major goal for juniors was to raise money for one mystically enchanted evening of the year of which they were finally a part of: Jr./Sr. Decisions of future schooling and career were still too far away to worry about but were pondered, discussed, and prepared for. With the future seeming rapidly upon them, the middle class took advantage of many opportunities and proved their enthusiasm throughout the year.

SOPHOMORES

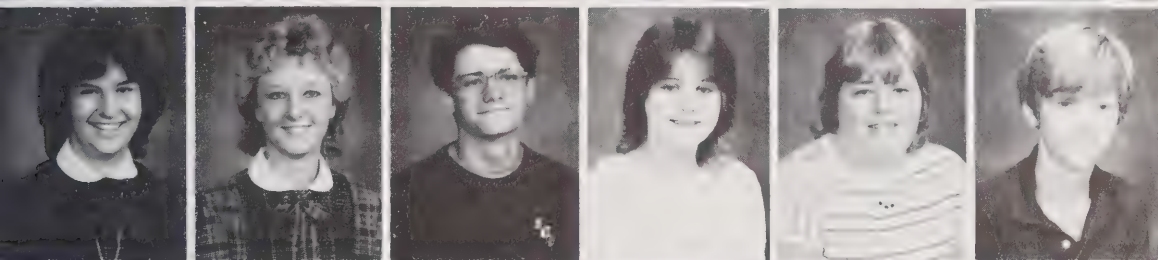

It was the first time around and there were plenty of new experiences for the crew at the bottom of the barrel. It took a lot of humility and good nature to waddle around at the command of any senior on that most dreaded day . . . Initiation. But along with the associations of low life were also moments of victory for sophomores. The weeks of classroom study and driving hours in driver education finally paid off when the sweet sixteenth birthday rolled around and the car keys were placed in the palm of the hand. This miraculous freedom opened the door to many ventures — part-time jobs, car dates, cruising

Main, driving to school. Of course, being a sophomore means always being at the bottom and always being the target for a practical joke (G building swimming pool). But it wasn't too bad because these beginners weren't just average sophomores . . . they were sophomore Eagles!

STUDENT LIFE

STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT

Many students at East have excelled outside of school and we would like to recognize a few of these outstanding students.

Scott Surette — trip to Europe for the Spirit of the American Band

Gary Kitchen — received Exemplary Award for outstanding summer work

Angela Pressley, Drew Wittman, Andrea Franks, and Russ Muir — considered for the Morehead Scholarship

Junior Firemen — representing the following departments: Blue Ridge, Valley Hill, Green River, Saluda, and Dana

Kim Reaves — a Page for the Congressmen in Raleigh

POWDERPUFF '83

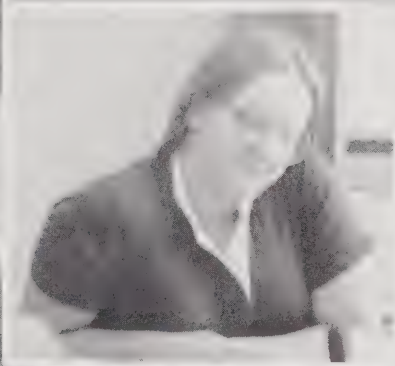

Beauties named Tim, Scott, Tom, Mike, and other masculine names, cheering for football players with names such as Kim, Michelle, and Tammy . . . It could only be POWDERPUFF! Although the Seniors played a tough game, the Jrs. and Sophs. won 6-0. Ross Slayton was crowned Homecoming King during half-time activities. The day was concluded with a dunking machine with our very own Mr. Thomas awaiting to be dunked again and again!

SAY CHEESE!

Walking around campus with the school camera can bring varied reactions from East students, but generally the eager display of photogenic poses leaves the photographer with an irresistible shot.

ALL DRESSED UP

When we were just youngsters, we used to get into Mom and Dad's closet, borrow a few clothes, and dress up in the image of our parents. Today, even as high school students, we play the same game . . . outfits from the punk rock and new wave to twins and the opposite sex.

HOMECOMING '83

The long awaited night came during halftime of the East-Erwin game. Vicki Huggins was crowned Homecoming Queen 1983 by Homecoming Queen 1982 Tammie Ward. This year there were 18 lovely ladies on the field. The young ladies were brought onto the field in dashing sports cars furnished by the Corvette Club. After the game everyone moved into the gym for the dance.

1983 Homecoming Queen Vicki Huggins was escorted by Mark Garren.

Senior representative Missy Ward was escorted by Rodney Miller.

Tammy Parris, a senior representative, was escorted by Tome DaMitz.

Susan Ballard, a junior representative, was escorted by Roger Jernigan.

A junior representative, Tracy Fletcher, was escorted by Gary Kidd.

Pam Styles, a sophomore representative, was escorted by Randy McDaniels.

Kristy Wilkins, a sophomore representative, was escorted by Chris Frady.

PETER BOSTRÖM

Peter Bostrom is from Marsta, Sweden which is a fifty minute drive from Stockholm. As Peter has learned to adapt to the U.S. climate he has especially learned to adapt to the food. He enjoys American foods such as lasagna and pizza. He not only enjoys eating the food but to cook it as well. Before he came to the U.S. he enjoyed being a cook at one of the airports in Sweden. Some of Peter's other interests include Cross Country, Ski Club, track, hiking, and tennis. His favorite subjects include English and Food Service. When asked what he missed most about Sweden he said his family, wind surfing, his dog and mostly the Swedish girls.

SUSAN WARNER

Susan Warner, a graduating senior with the class of '84 at East, has spent an exhilarating year abroad with her AFS family in Henri-Chapelle, Belgium. Surrounded by a different culture and lifestyle than that of her family in Hendersonville, North Carolina, Susan has enjoyed the challenge of learning a third language, French, and "doing as the Belgians do." As a student at an all-girls' school, Susan has played on a basketball team and found the school curriculum to be much more intense than what she has been accustomed to. Susan also rides horses, attends social gatherings for young people, and does plenty of sight-seeing in the scenic European country. Being chosen as an AFS exchange student has given Susan the opportunity to see how other people live in another part of the world. She has thoroughly enjoyed the privilege and will treasure this experience for a lifetime.

JOSÉ CARRIZO

José Carrizo, our exchange student from Panama, has learned a great deal of Americans' customs and traditions from the people here at East Henderson. He is living with the Mankas and enjoys it very much. Along with his American family he also enjoys playing baseball, soccer, volleyball and advanced math (when Mrs. Wall talks slow enough to be understood). It was not very long before french-fries, porkchops, and biscuits became some of his favorite American foods.

WEEKENDS WERE MADE FOR . . .

Rock 'n' Roll

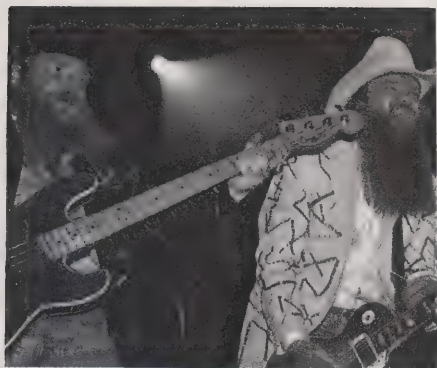

Rock and roll — its sound, look, and character — is viewed and heard daily by a large majority of East students. An example of this music preference is the senior class song, "Carry On My Warward Son", by Kansas. The groups and individuals on these two pages truly depict the style which rock 'n' roll is associated with today.

... Foreigner, John Cougar, Stevie Nicks, The Doobie Brothers, The Eagles, Nightranger, Cheap Trick, Midnight Starr ...

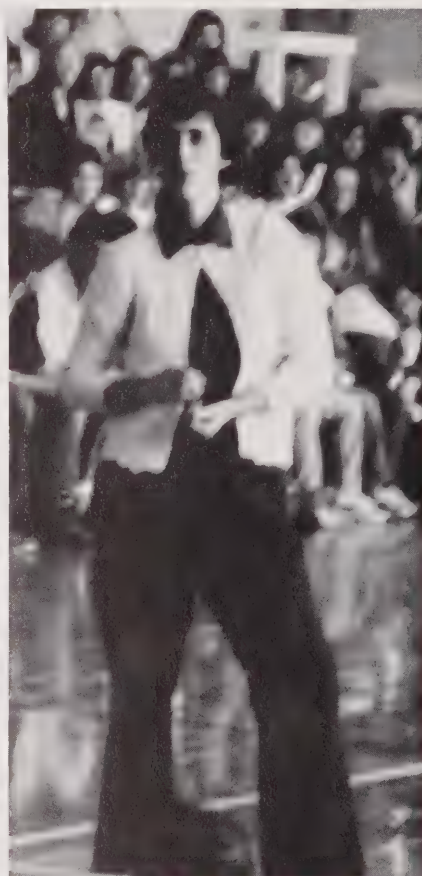

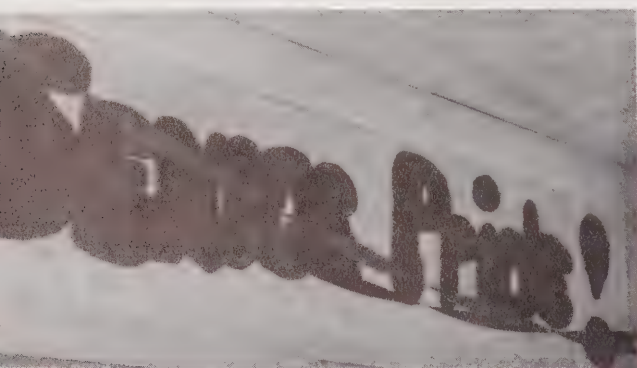

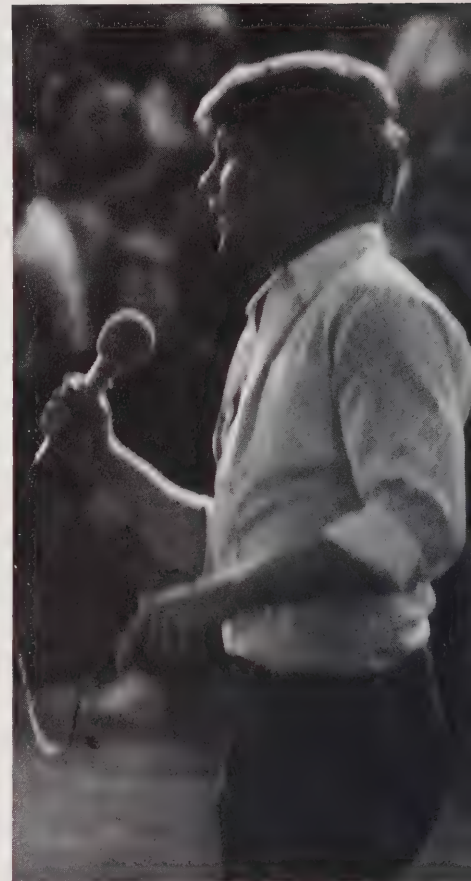

... Van Halen, Judas Priest, Iron Maiden, Krokus, Motley Crue, Michael Jackson, The Gap Band, Billy Joel, Quiet Riot, Loverboy, Journey, Def Leppard, Destiny, Defiance, Ozzy Osbourne, Pat Benetar, Rick Springfield, Molly Hatchet, .38 Special, Lynyrd Skynyrd, Boston, Aldo Nova, Kansas, Scorpions, Motorhead, Triumph, Dio, The Who, Rush, The Police, The Clash, Led Zeppelin, Heart, AC/DC, Kiss, Queen, ZZ Top, Joan Jett ...

Someday

I will look back to these days,

and I will laugh because they make me happy,
and I will cry because they are gone.

I am glad for the now,

but someday I will be even gladder for the memories.

Volleyball

1983 was a disappointing season for the varsity volleyball team. The varsity team suffered a winless season under first year coach Virginia Haynes, but there is hope for a brighter future next year due to the returning juniors on the team. The sophomores on the J.V. team were welcomed to East by whip cream and water balloons delivered personally by the varsity team. The J.V. team went on to have a winning season.

Cross Country

The 1983 cross-country team, under the direction of Mr. Dick King, succeeded in displaying their fine sportsmanship and consistent efforts this season. The group has widened its radius to have more participation from all high school grades and from both sexes. Their togetherness as a team kept them running . . . and kept them winning.

For the first time East took a full team to Sectionals and placed twelfth out of thirty. At the end of the season, a special event just among East cross-country runners was held. James Brookshire and Michelle Baker were awarded for having the best time and Robby Williams and Donna Revis were awarded for the most improved time in this event. The most valuable runners for the season were James Brookshire and Michelle Baker. The most improved runner was Steve Whiteside. Special acknowledgement is given to Eldon Rollins for being the first runner at East to letter four years in cross country.

Varsity Cheerleaders

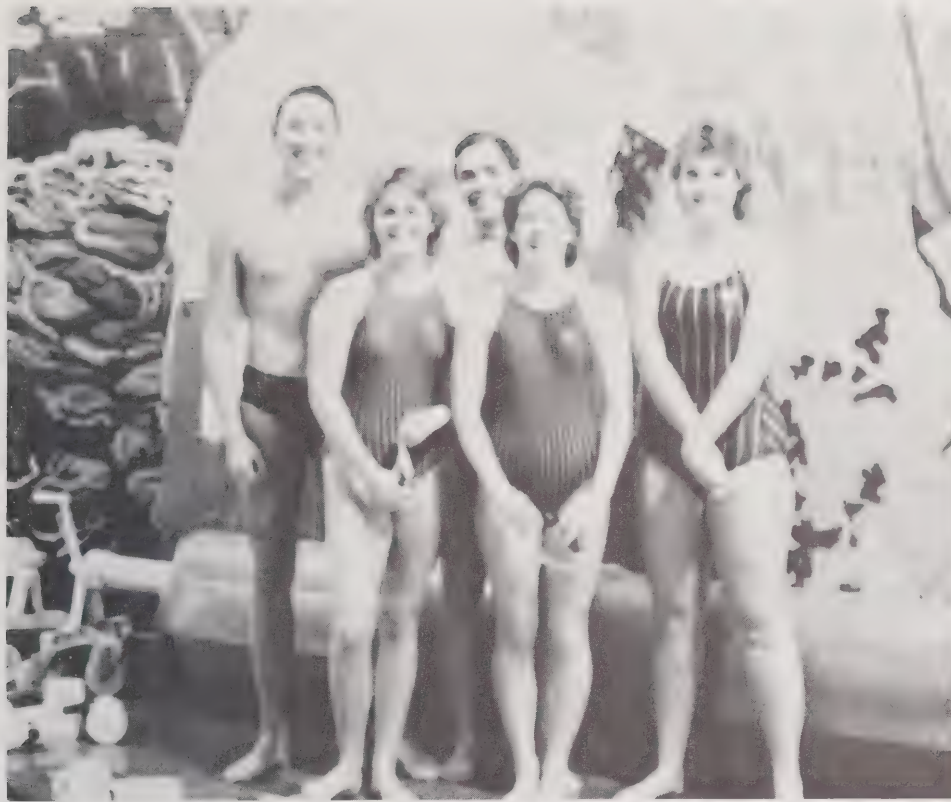

This past summer the cheerleaders won several awards at N.C.A. Cheerleading Camp. The awards include Most Spirited, four superior ribbons and they won the spirit stick three nights and brought it home with them. The cheerleaders also competed in the Cheerwine Cheer-off and won it. They were judged on originality, neatness, enthusiasm, as well as many other categories. They walked away with the Cheerwine Bell, two plaques, Champion Cheer wine shirts, and most of all the fact that they were the Cheerwine Cheerleaders. The cheerleaders cheered for Varsity Football and Varsity Girls and Boys Basketball. This year to promote spirit, the cheerleaders went to several county elementary schools to do pep rallies. This years 83-84 Cheerleaders are: Tina Cox, Tracey Fletcher, Vicki Huggins — Capt., Krista Merchant, Carolyn Muir, Melanie Shipman, Missy Ward, and Kristi Wilkins. Congratulations to a great squad!

Swimming

For the first time, East had a swim team through the YMCA and in conjunction with Hendersonville High School. Although East suffered some because of their small size, their debut in this aquatic sport was successful. Former Olympic backstroker Coach Slim Chalmers took the team, among other places, to Greenville, Shelby, and Statesville. East also competed in individual school meets, one being at T.C. Roberson where Neal Thivierge qualified for Sectionals in the 100 yd. backstroke and 200 yd. Individual Medley and Terry Orr qualified in the 100 yd. butterfly.

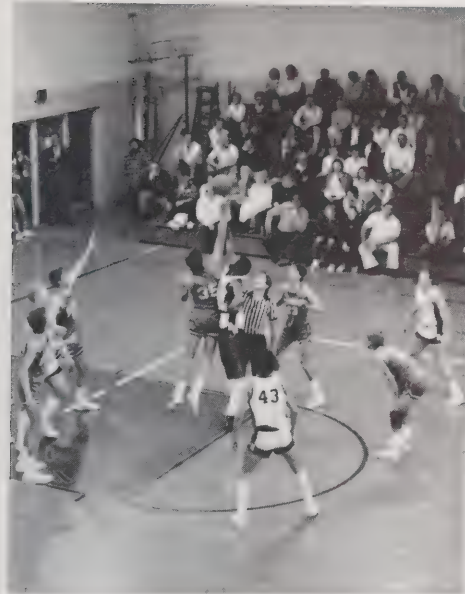

VARSITY

Although their record isn't perfect, our basketball team is one that we can be very proud of. There is a lot of hard work involved in playing for Coach Tabben. The dedication of our athletes should be commended. The players, pictured above, are (front to back; L-R): S. Fletcher, A.J. Greene, D. Pressley, P. Mullinax, A. Barnett (2nd row) E. Watkins, D. Phipps, J. Haynes, S. White-side, A. Case, and Coach Tebben.

HIGHLIGHTS

1983 marks the first year for East's publication of the Eagle Eye, although a school newspaper has been in existence since the 1960's. The staff meets in their own journalism class advised by choral/English teacher, Mrs. Ballew. A typesetting and printing contract with Shopper's Guide enables them to produce 650 copies at approximately $600. Complete with political cartoons, photographs, editorials, sports updates, current news, and advertisements, the Eagle Eye stands proudly next to past issues of the East Courier (1960's) and the Echo (1970's). The first year for the Eagle Eye has been a great start for journalism in this school, and expansions and creativity will continue to appear in the future.

SENIOR PRIDE

Teachers . . . Teachers

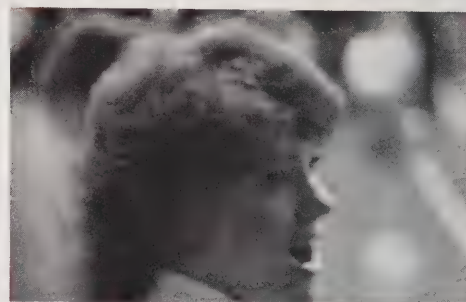

This year the East faculty had many new faces on campus. Mr. Thomas, our new vice-principal, got the year off to a good start with his famous paddle. Mr. Sapp was added to the math staff, teaching algebra II and general math II, and took the reigns of the golf team. Coach Tebben, a geometry and consumer math teacher, became East's boys basketball coach. Mrs. Pusey filled the position of teaching world studies and headed the United Nations Club. Mr. Paige was added to the business staff, teaching typing I, accounting I, and office occupations I.

As anyone can imagine, standing in front of a classful of students trying to be interesting, sensible, respected, informative and instructive all at the same time is definitely a challenge! A teacher is fortunate in having such a widely chromatic choice of methods to do their thing — teach. Yet no teacher produces successful students without struggling, sacrificing, setting an example, and truly giving of himself. Although we often fail to give them acknowledgement, teachers put forth a lot of effort for our own benefit. We may not always express our appreciation now, but later down the road we will all someday look back and be thankful for the special teacher from our school days who made a lasting impression on us.

A Day In The Life Of A Student

It's Monday morning and I've pushed the snooze button on my clock about four times too many. Now Mom is dragging me out of bed and as the blood starts pumping and I gradually gain consciousness, I take a quick glance at the clock. Oh no! It's going to be another one of those days. Time to make a mad dash to school! After a quick shower and a 1000 watt blast of hot air from the hair dryer, I sneak a glance in the mirror and add a few finishing touches.

In the kitchen I spend ten minutes trying to convince Mom I don't have time for breakfast. Finally my books, my P.E. clothes, my lunch money, and all my little brother and sisters who need a ride to school make it to the car. To make up for time lost in the shower I exceed the speed limit 5mph faster than usual. At last I swing into the parking lot and find a spot.

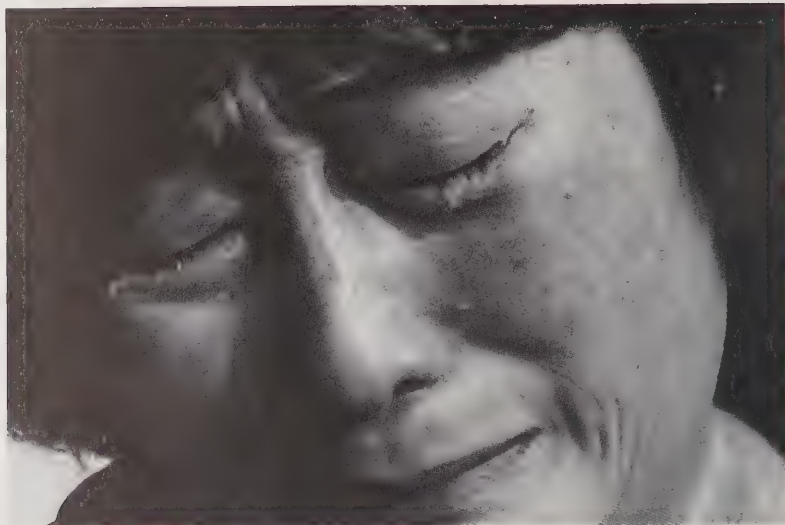

Oh no! The first bell's already rung and I still have to go to my locker. I'll never make it in time, and I can't afford to get another tardy. I'm really going to have to hurry!

But wait! Do I look alright??? "Hi John! What's new?"

The Year In Review

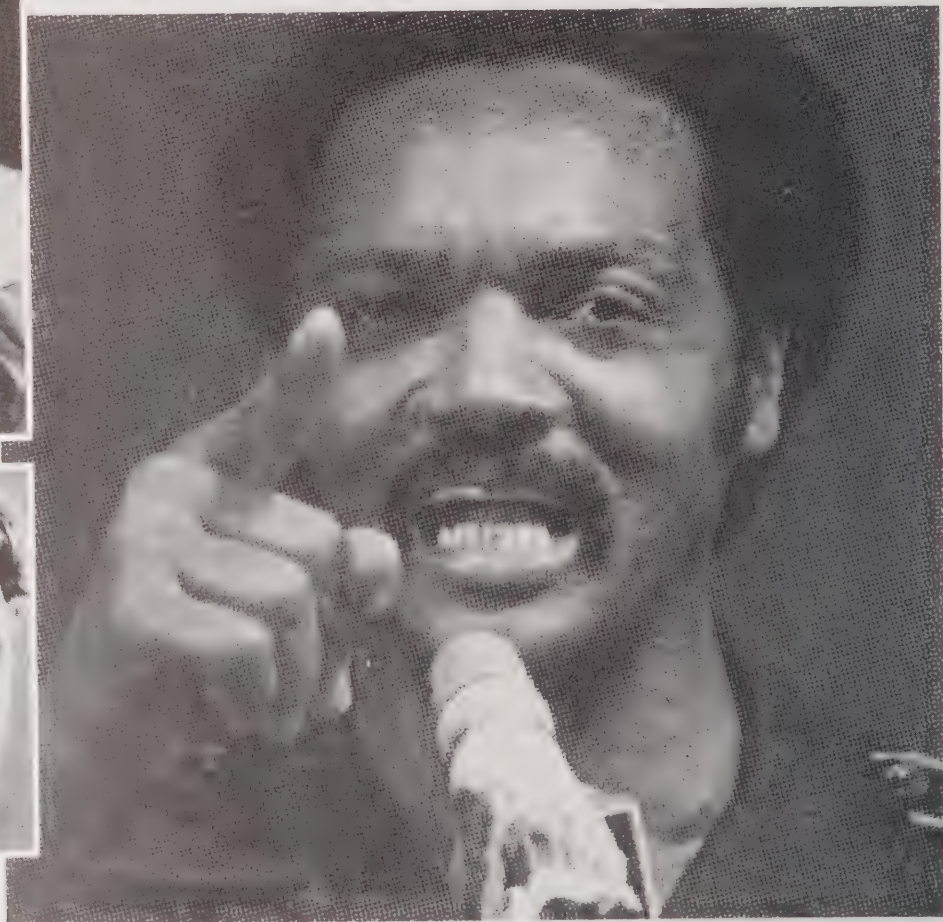

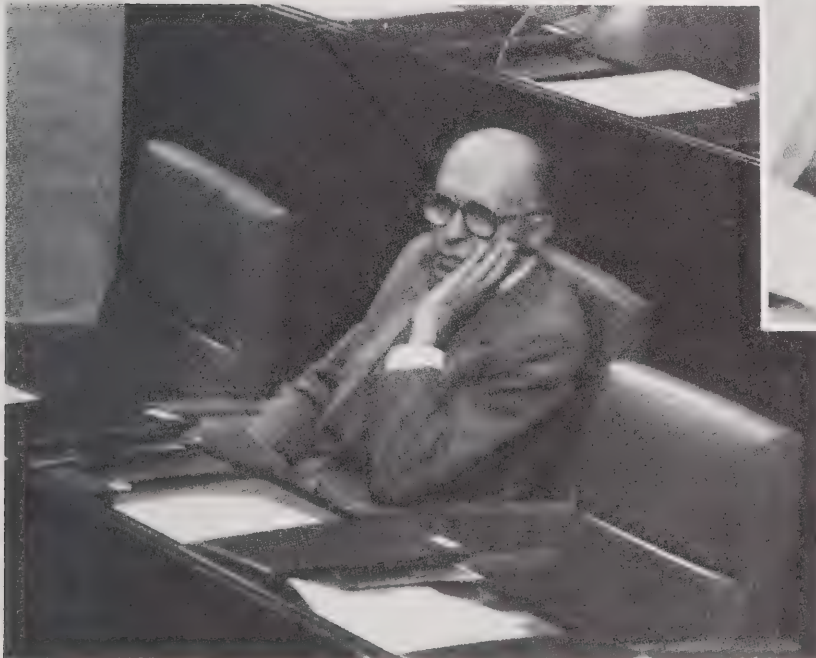

The 1983-84 school year was full of extraordinary events happening all over the world. Just days after the end of summer vacation, the world was stifled and confused over the Soviets' mysterious downing of Korean Air Lines flight 007, killing 269 aboard. Among other mysteries, Soviet leader Andropov vanished from the press and, made no public appearances. Terrorist bombings in Beirut, Lebanon devastated the nation in October when 239 U.S. men and 58 French paratroopers were crushed to death the the explosion of the Marine compound and French barracks. Shortly after, the United States and Caribbean forces invaded the island of Grenada to retrieve the over 600 American medical students stranded there. In addition to all of this actual warfare, the increasing controversy over arms control continued. A growing national concern developed over the rising percentage of those with the illness that disables the body's immune system: AIDS. These and many other events, whether worldwide, national or local, affected students.

THIS YEAR

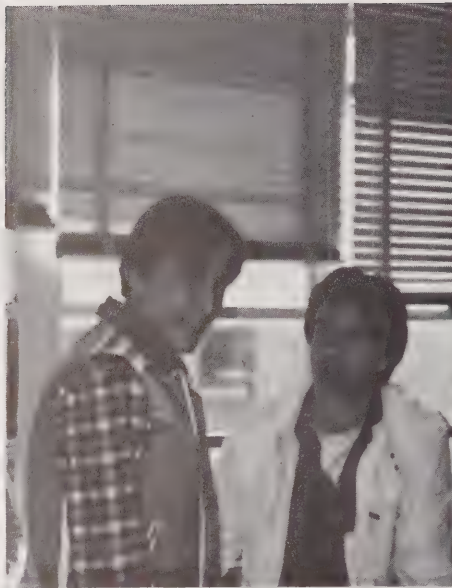

We will always remember this year of our life when reminded of the important faces, movies, and events of this period. The first black Miss America, Vanessa Williams (top left); Cabbage Patch doll mania (top right); the sweeping success of video rock as displayed by Paul McCartney and Michael Jackson in "Say Say Say" (center); and the trendsetting ripped sweatshirt fashion featured in the hit movie Flashdance (right) will someday be history because of the tremendous effect they had on America.

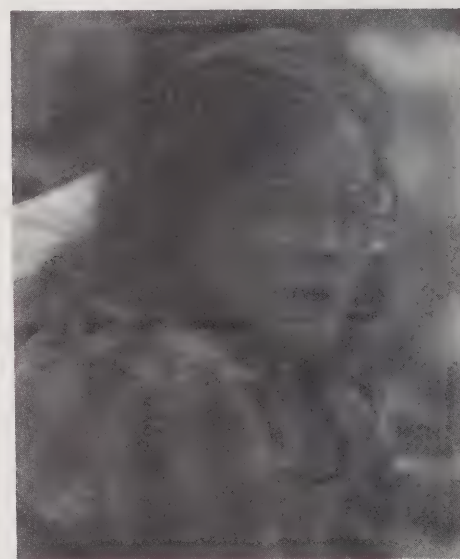

John Travolta and Olivia Newton-John teamed up once again and appeared in Two of a Kind (pictured at far top). A new, and definitely eye-catching, face in the theater and on television was that of the tough Mr. T (center left). Former astronaut and presidential candidate John Glenn pursued an acting career in the movie The Right Stuff (directly above). Boy George, the lead singer for the British rock group Culture Club, has made his physiognomy his fortune (center right). Dr. Sally K. Ride (bottom left) became the first American woman in orbit. A devastating television movie, The Day After, opened Americans' eyes to the horrible after-effects of nuclear war.

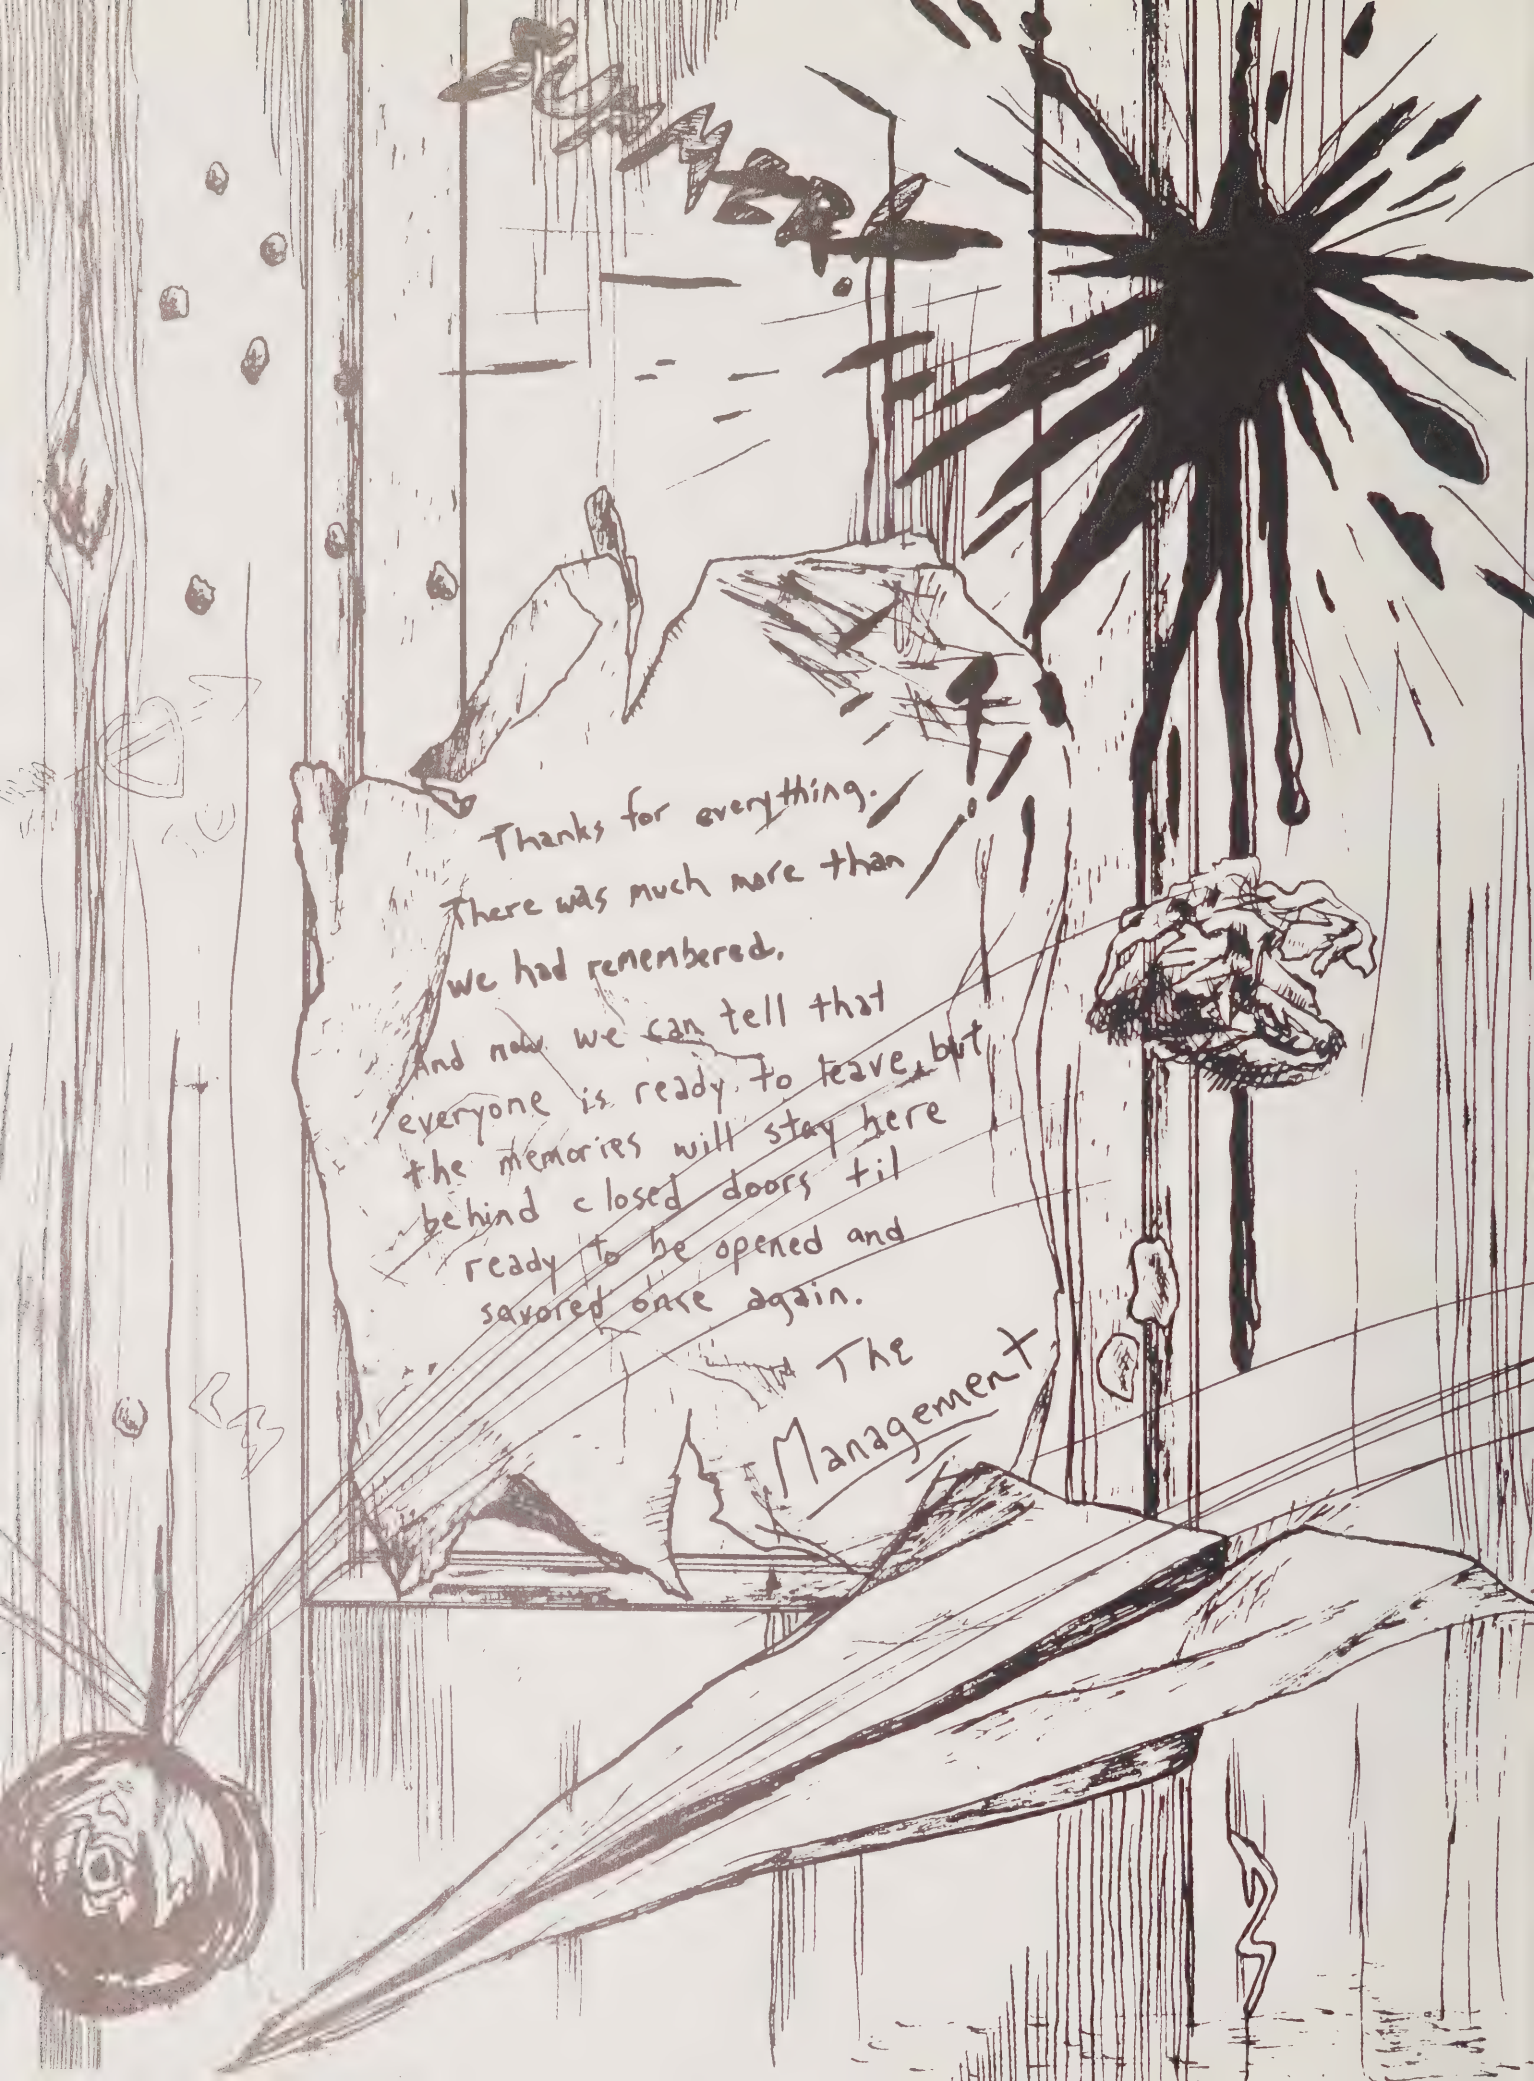

As the school year comes to a close, we should all take a long, hard look at what we, as individuals, have accomplished, attained, and succeeded at. The annual staff, along with the unbounded help and cooperation from Doctor Ledbetter and faculty, as well as support from Mrs. Gray and caring parents and students, have all pooled together to complete our project for you: this yearbook. If any idea is conveyed to you in viewing this annual, let it be one of pride and respect for yourself and your school. May you always have the ambition to seek your potential and make your dreams come true ... take pride in what you do!

Thanks for everything.
There was much more than
we had remembered.

And now we can tell that everyone is ready to leave, but the memories will stay here behind closed doors til ready to be opened and savored once again.
